"ONE MORE RIVER" - THE MOOD OF SOUTHERN UNITED STATES TODAY - On Tuesday at 11:00 a.m. this startling film, portraying the fanaticism which besets the southern United States today, will be shown in the East Common Room of Hart House. The film includes an interview with Malcolm X, the Black Muslim spokesman and other radicals both white and negro. The film was produced by the C.B.C., for Intertel, and was shown last Spring to wide critical acclaim. Mr. Douglas Licterman, the producer and Miss Beryl Fox, the assistant producer, will be here to discuss the film, and to tell us of their experiences in the heart of the South while making the movie. In view of the racial problems of the U.S. today, this is a particularly timely film, and of interest to anyone concerned with one of the worst social problems in the modern world.

THE PRESIDENT'S LECTURES SERIES - The last lecture in this summer's series on "Shakespeare and Music", entitled "The Function of Song in Shakespeare's Plays", will be given this Wednesday by Professor Frederick Sternfeld, of the Faculty of Music of Oxford. Professor Sternfeld, who is on sabbatical leave from Oxford, will be guest lecturer at several American universities this season. He has just completed a book entitled Music in Shakespearean Tragedy, and his talk promises to be a stimulating conclusion to this year's series.

HART HOUSE WEDNESDAY NIGHT - Do you need a break from your studying or essay writing? Why not try a Hart House Wednesday Night? The pool is open for mixed swimming from 9:00 - 10:30, and the dancing, records, bridge, and movies go from 9:00 until midnight. There's lots to do for everybody, so why not join the group.

DAVID DUNLAP OBSERVATORY TOUR - There is still space for a FEW more students to come on the Dunlap Observatory tour this Thursday at 8:30 p.m. If you wish to go on this interesting visit, sign the lists in the Information Centre or O.C.E. immediately. Those who are going should check with Mrs. Deane, in the Information Centre on Wednesday or Thursday morning regarding car pool to Richmond Hill, and those driving direct should be at the observatory by 8:30.

HART HOUSE THEATRE - AFTERNOON PERFORMANCES - The Summer School of the Theatre will present two one-act plays, TOURISTS AND WHITE ROSES by Douglas Arrell, a student in the Theatre School, and WAYS AND MEANS by Noel Coward on Thursday, August 1st and Friday, August 2nd at 4:15 in Hart House Theatre. Both plays will be directed by Professor Elizabeth Kimberly of the Carnegie Institute of Technology. There is no admission charge and everyone is welcome.

HART HOUSE ART GALLERY TALK - On Friday at 1:00 p.m. Mr. John Richmond will discuss the exhibition of the Society of Painters in Watercolour currently showing in the Art Gallery.

JOTTINGS

Stratford plays tomorrow are THE MIKADO and TROILUS AND CRESSIDA, and next Tuesday, THE MIKADO and TIMON OF ATHENS. Tickets for the Tely Tours may be ordered in the Information Centre.

The O.C.E. pool is open daily from 12:00-1:00 and 3:00-4:30 for all students.

Have you checked the Students' Notice Board in the Information Centre where there are lists of typists, lost and founds, etc. Many useful bits of information can be found posted there.
